CASTING CALL

PLAYERS WANTED

Project and production details

- Project Title: Applied Game Mastery Reel Play
- Production Overview: AGM Reel Play is a live stream/YouTube production where a game master and 4 players play tabletop role-playing games (TTRPGs) and evaluate what works and what doesn't. The cast will take on the roles of players who play the games and provide on-camera feedback.
- Production Dates and Location:
    - Pre-Production meetings start in October 2026, with production beginning in January 2027.
    - Primary filming location is in Efland, NC, with other possible locations along the I-40 corridor between Raleigh, NC, and Burlington, NC.

Character breakdown

- We are seeking a diverse group of players, 18 and up, to participate as players in a monthly or bi-monthly in-person Tabletop Role-Playing Game (TTRPG) session and provide feedback and discussion. Candidates must be comfortable working with people from many different, sometimes opposing backgrounds, and be comfortable being photographed and/or recorded. Participation conveys consent to be recorded.
- Content Warnings: During the filming of the show, we may cover topics such as safety tools or dealing with problem players. The cast may be asked to act out scenarios in a safe manner, for demonstration of behaviors and how to deal with them. In all cases, topics will be discussed before the production date.
